

Aporum Energy — Terms & Conditions (Customer Summary)

This is a plain-language summary of the Aporum Energy Customer Retail Contract. The full legal contract is available on request and takes precedence over this summary.

No lock-in contracts

All Aporum residential plans are no lock-in. Customers may switch retailers or plans at any time without exit fees.

Cooling-off period

New customers have a 10 business day cooling-off period from the date the contract is confirmed, during which they may cancel without penalty.

Moving house

Customers relocating can transfer their Aporum plan to a new address at no cost, provided at least 3 business days' notice is given before the move date.

Disconnection policy

- Aporum will never disconnect supply for non-payment without prior written notice and an offer of a payment plan or hardship assistance.
- Life support customers registered with Aporum cannot be disconnected for non-payment.
- Disconnection for non-payment requires at least two reminder notices and a minimum 20 business day notice period after the original due date.

Complaints and dispute resolution

Customers unhappy with the resolution of a complaint may escalate to the Energy and Water Ombudsman in their state at no cost. Aporum aims to resolve all complaints within 10 business days.

Privacy

Customer data, including usage data, is handled in accordance with the Aporum Privacy Policy and the Australian Privacy Principles. Data is not sold to third parties.
